Revised Schedule – Spring 2010

Please see below for changes in events and dates
published in the 2009-2010 Season brochure

Recital – Yuri Anshelevich, cellist

March 7, Sunday, 7:00 p.m.

One of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra's most popular recitalists, cellist Yuri Anshelevich, will perform with Joel Martinson at the harpsichord and organ, playing works by J. S. Bach and Alessandro Scarlatti. The concert will also feature unaccompanied solo pieces by John Tavener and Donald Crumb and the world premiere of Sevens for Two – A Fantasy for Cello & Organ by Martinson, especially composed for the occasion.

Organ Dedicatory Recital –

James David Christie

April 18, Sunday, 3:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m.

Internationally-acclaimed organist, James David Christie, pulls out all the stops in two duplicate recitals on the day of the dedication of the Richards, Fowkes & Co. Opus 17. Complimentary tickets are required for both recitals, and will be available starting March 1. A gala reception will follow the 7:00 p.m. performance.

Symposium and Festival of Song

"How Hymnody Shapes People of Faith, Conscience and Action in the 21st Century"

Symposium – May 22, Saturday, 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Festival of Song – May 23, Sunday, 5:00 p.m. with Imperial Brass

Season Finale Recital – Joel Martinson, organist

June 13, Sunday, 7:00 p.m.

Transfiguration's own Joel Martinson will explore the vast tonal resources of Opus 17.
