WHO IS MY Neighbor?

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS IN LENT
On Wednesday evenings this Lent, we will explore the Jesus’ commandment to love our neighbors as ourselves through the series, “Who Is My Neighbor?” Each week, we’ll host a speaker who will answer this question from the perspective of their unique ministry. Join us as we learn about our common humanity with those neighbors we might not encounter in our daily lives. Learn more and ask your questions on our social media channels.

Children will meet during the adult speaker session to learn how to be God’s hands and feet in their neighborhoods, and in the world, while they learn what it means to love Jesus. Each week they’ll hear a Bible-based story to explore concepts about kindness, compassion, and justice in age-appropriate ways through games, crafts, and snacks. Please register your child(ren) in Realm to determine how many volunteers will be needed. Youth will meet for regular programming in the Youth Center after sharing dinner in Roper Hall.

RETREAT REGISTRATION NOW OPEN!

Join us for a parish-wide retreat at Camp Allen in Navasota, TX the weekend of May 10-12. There will be activities and programming for both children and adults, and plenty of down time, recreational opportunities, and fellowship gatherings for people of all ages. The retreat speaker on Saturday and Sunday will be Debbie Blue, author of Come Bird the Bird, and author of the upcoming book, Consider a Dove. Debbie will lead retreat sessions for adults while children and youth will have opportunities for learning about God and exploring nature, led by Cindy Hauser (Director of Children’s Ministries) and Alex Cavanaugh (Director of Youth Ministries). By popular demand, this year you will also be able to register for optional activities such as horseback riding and canoeing. Don’t miss out on this time to get away in nature and get to know people at Transfiguration in a beautiful setting. Learn more online at www.transfiguration.net/retreat.

BOOKSTORE CORNER

FEBRUARY OUTREACH SPOTLIGHT
Transfiguration has partnered with DME (Durable Medical Equipment) Exchange of Dallas for three years by providing Outreach grants. This non-profit provides recycled medical equipment to clients who have a doctor’s prescription but are unable to afford the cost.

DME has a facility where they refurbish, sanitize, repair and distribute items such as hospital beds, wheelchairs, walkers, crutches, etc. Interested in learning more? Visit with Pete Sheely, Transfiguration parishioner and DME’s Board Treasurer, in the Gathering Space today to find out how to donate medical equipment or log volunteer time at their facility. Pete can be contacted at 214 856 9497 or okpes@aol.com.

WELCOME!
WE’RE SO GLAD YOU’RE HERE TODAY.
Our mission is to seek and serve Christ in all persons, and joyfully welcome all people into our life and fellowship. We are an inclusive community of disciples who love God, follow Jesus through reverent worship, compassionate service, formative education, and sacrificial stewardship. If you’re interested in learning more about our life together at Transfiguration, please fill out a welcome card in the pew rack and put it in the offering plate. Someone will be in touch in the coming week to answer your questions. You are also invited to pick up a welcome packet at the Welcome Desk by the front doors. Thank you for sharing our act of worship with us this weekend. We hope you will experience the grace and mercy of God among our community.

JOIN US THIS EVENING
Tonight at 7:00 p.m., Transfiguration Nights presents the Transfiguration Choir, Gallery Chamber Singers, and soloists, joined by an orchestra of strings, English Horns, and French Horns in Franz Joseph Haydn’s two organ masses: Missa brevis Sanctus Jeanes de Deo (“Cycle Organ Mass”) and Missa in Bmanore Beaatimatis Virgine Mariae (“Great Organ Mass”). Stefan Engels, Artist in Residence at Transfiguration, will be the featured soloist in both these works. Megan Mauss, soprano, Natalie Antinou, alto, Chris Atrens, tenor, and Jason Aweby, bass, will serve as the vocal soloists. The concert is free of admission performed by our wonderful choir and Stefan Engels accompanied by orchestra!

PASTORAL CARE & PRAYER

Clergy, staff, and other ministers in the parish provide ongoing pastoral care to a large number of parishioners. We offer spiritual direction, play group, and other events. The Prayer Chain distributes prayer requests and pastoral care notifications to volunteers who pray daily for the needs of the parish and our friends. Submit prayer requests at 972-233-1898 ext. 300 or by email at prayerchain@transfiguration.net.

Daughters of the King is a ministry of women who have taken a vow to pray daily for the needs of the parish and assist the clergy in prayer and pastoral care. Submit prayer requests at 972-233-1898 ext. 300 or by email at prayerchain@transfiguration.net.

Our Stephen Ministers are trained caregivers who can walk with you through difficult times. One of our Stephen Ministry leaders can provide you with more information. Contact Linda Horton, Deborah Dietl, Juli Schenkel.

The Rev. Nancy DeStefano, LCSW, is available for pastoral counseling and spiritual direction. She can be contacted at refection@transfiguration.net.

Finally, the clergy meet for 90 minutes each week to discuss pastoral care needs of individuals in the parish. If you need pastoral care or would like a member of the clergy to be in prayer for you, please contact one of the members of the clergy at 972-233-1898, or after hours at 214-296-2748.

TODAY

FORMATION CLASSES FOR ALL AGES | SUNDAY AT 10:15 AM

Christian formation classes begin each Sunday morning at 10:15 a.m. Classes meet each Sunday at 10:15 a.m. Adults have four options to choose from:

1. Adult Class: for our class for parents with children living at home, will have a fellowship chat today in the Vestry Room.

2. Old Testament 101, led by Dr. Roy Helber, Professor of Old Testament at SMU, will not meet this week. They will continue their explanation of Civil Rights Pilgrimage to Alabama and Mississippi in early April, explore how the words of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. continue to resonate with power and truth long after his death.

Children age two years through fifth grade have curriculum options based on age and learning style. If you’re new to Transfiguration’s Regnum Christi, please contact Director of Children’s Ministries, Cindy Hauser at cindy@transfiguration.net.

Children in sixth through 12th grades gather in the Youth Center on Sunday mornings to engage their faith together by studying scripture and asking the hard questions that come with being a Christian. No registration required. Questions? Contact Alex Carnavon, Director of Youth Ministries, at acarnavon@transfiguration.net.

JANUARY 15:SUNDAY | 11:15 AM

SUNDAY | 11:15 AM

Saturday Services on March 6.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES | MARCH 6

Ash Wednesday is a day of penance. The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated with imposition of Ashes at four services throughout the day: 6:30 a.m., 12:00 p.m., 5:30 p.m. (for families with children), and 7:00 p.m. (choral). Childcare is provided at 5:30 and 7:00 p.m.

NEW GREGORIAN DICTA| MARCH 7

Celebrating the day of a holy face is deeply painful, uniquely personal, and has no timetable. Our new grief program “When Life Hurts: Finding Hope and Healing in a Time of Loss” is designed to connect grieving hearts with words to hold a place of hope and healing. This means for all who grieve the death of a loved one, whether that loss is spring or early summer. Pastor Assistant, the Rev. Nancy DeStefano, will facilitate groups of 12 participants. The program will meet on Thursdays beginning March 7 for eight weeks at either 10 a.m. or 6:30 p.m. for 90 minutes each session. This is a new program for the entire group and it will be repeated again in the fall. To see if this workshop is right for you, please contact nancystefano@transfiguration.net.

WOMEN’S EVENING BOOK GROUP – MARCH 7

The Rev. Nancy DeStefano's Women's Evening Book Group meets each Thursday from 7:00 p.m. in the Parker to discuss The Piano Maker, A Novel by Kurt Vonnegut. West in the winter of 1930, a young woman arrives alone in a village in Nova Scotia where she begins parting of village life. She begins to play the piano, which becomes a tool for European family, in the local church. Her past and present come together when the mysterious circumstances that led her there are revealed. All women are welcome. Questions? Contact Betty Warren at bettywrenn@gmail.com.

RASOY WORKSHOP | MARCH 16

Rosary Workshop. Each March we present a Rosary Workshop where you can learn the mysteries of the Rosary. Participants must register in the Gathering Space beginning February 23. Questions? Contact Darlene Justice at darlenest@att.net.

COMING UP IN MARCH

TRANSFIGURED NIGHTS PRESENTS ARVID GAST | MARCH 1

On Friday, March 1, at 7:30 p.m., Transfigured Nights and the Dallas Chapter of the American Guild of Organists with Norwegian organist Arvid Gast in recital. Professor Gast is Director of the Church Music Institute at the Musikhochschule in Lübeck, Germany, who he also is the historian of the St. Jakob Church. Professor Gast was one of Joel Martinson’s honored teachers during his sabbatical in 2014, during which he taught at Oberlin Conservatory. The recital is a bonus concert of the 2018-2019 Transfigured Nights season to take advantage of this rare opportunity to hear Professor Gast play our Opus 17 organ.
